Dear Counselors:

Thank you for your update. Additional clarification is requested by Commission staff on what issue or matter are the parties referencing as being settled between them in the attached March 13, 2020 letter. For example, was it the motion to compel or discovery dispute (which was to be heard in oral arguments next week on the 18th) that settled, or did your joint letter mean that the matter as a whole has been settled by the parties?

Your attention to this matter is appreciated.

With kind regards, I remain

Jo Anne Wessinger Hill

- Re:   • Ganymede Solar, LLC v. Dominion Energy South Carolina, Incorporated
       ("Dominion")– Docket 2019-390-E
       • Scheduled Oral Argument

Ms. Hill:

The undersigned is counsel of record for Ganymede Solar, LLC, ("Ganymede"). Counsel for Dominion and I, did not want you to spend unnecessary time preparing for the March 18, 2020, oral argument, so please consider the following.

The parties in this Docket have reached a settlement, which is only pending formal execution and approval by the Commission. Accordingly, Ganymede and Dominion jointly request that the scheduled March 18, 2020 oral argument, be held in abeyance. Please advise if you require any additional information and this request is,

Respectfully Submitted,

/s/Richard L. Whitt
